Currently, 28 Neko Majins have been discovered in the entire world. Their origins are not known but most live quietly and happily in the countryside.
A Neko Majin is a cat like creature who can use a bit of magic.
シッポにぎっても平気さ!!
(わかる人にしかわからんっちゅうの!!)
"Squeezing my tail does nothing!!"(Those who know,will understand.)
This story's hero, a Neko Majin named "Z", follows that trend and is said to be strong...
Their magic is usually not very impressive, most are actually better skilled in the martial arts....

No, you have to leave some slaves for me.
Oh yeah, I forgot. Hahaha!!
It will take even me over a month to kill all of them without damaging the planet too much.
Yeah, over 5 billion of them.
But there are humans, right? That's a pain.
Good, we can make some money.
